American Soldiers in Germany Plan to Hunt German Game

By Associated Press Leased Wire
With the American Army of Occupation, April 29.—(By Mail)—American soldiers fond of wild game hunting are looking forward to July 1 when the season for duck, snipe, plover, wild swans, cranes and other swamp and bog game fowl begins. It was decided recently by Third Army officers that the soldiers of the Army of Occupation should abide by the German regulations regarding wild game. The open season for birds of the swamp will be the first opportunity of the summer for the Americans to try their hand at this kind of shooting.

But the American soldier will not be allowed to have the pleasure of eating the game even after he has had victory in the field. To prevent the soldiers from depleting the food supply of the country all meat obtained as a result of hunting by any army personnel will be turned over to the poor people of the locality in which the game was killed.

French Government Will Not Buy Wheat

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, May 28.—The new finance bill of the French government foreshadows discontinuance of the policy of purchasing the French wheat crop. This would eliminate an expenditure of five billion francs, of which two billion francs is a loss to the government.

REGULATE AUTOS IN DIXON CEMETERY

Commissioner George Campbell contemplates drafting a special ordinance governing the driving of automobiles in the cemetery. Complaints have been numerous thus far this spring from persons owning lots in the cemetery, relative to traffic condition there.

Automobiles driving through the cemetery in order to turn around, have been backing onto lots, cutting up the lawn and destroying flower beds and shrubbery, instead of proceeding to the turns where the cars may drive on another road. Another practice that is the cause of no end of complaint is that of throwing broken glass into the drive-ways. To overcome these practices, the commissioner favors the drafting of an ordinance covering both violations, and will doubtless suggest the matter at the next meeting on Tuesday evening of the board.

Frenchman is Charged with Twelve Murders

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, May 28.—(Havas.)—Henri Landru, who was arrested in April in connection with the disappearance of twelve women whom he had either married or promised to marry, was given a preliminary hearing yesterday. He said he did not know the whereabouts of the women and declared it was up to the authorities to prove he had any connection with their disappearance.

The judge told the prisoner that experts have reached the conclusion that the bones found in Landru's villa at Gambais were human bones. Landru replied by protesting against the authorities searching his villa in his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Callahan and son of Aurora, former Dixon residents, are in Dixon for a brief visit.

ONE DELIVERY OF

No rural delivery will be made. The general delivery window will be open until 10 o'clock in the morning, the money order and postal savings windows being closed for the day. Motorcycles Compete with Paris Taxicabs

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, April 28.—(By Mail)—Taxicabs are to have a new competitor in the streets of Paris, thanks mostly to the American army. Five hundred cars are to be licensed to ply for hire at about twenty cents a mile.
The American army has made great use of side cars in Paris and their handiness has appealed to everybody. Of course there is the drawback that a side car can only carry one passenger but official statistics show that between 50 and 60 per cent of taxicabs have only one passenger.

Spider Webs Hinder Cable Communications

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Buenos Aires, Tuesday, May 27.—(Delayed.)—Spider webs are working havoc with land ends of cable communication from Argentina, Brazil and parts of Chile to the United States, as well as interfering with interior telegraphic routes.

The ground spider spins a heavy web which the wind wraps around the wires. These masses become damp and short circuits are caused.

Large forces of linemen are following the wires across the Pampas and the mountains removing the accumulations.

William Ling and daughter were here yesterday from Lighthouse.

Roy Feldtknecht, of Sterling, was here yesterday.

BYERS TELLS DETAILS OF MEETING SOLDIERS
FROM DIXON SATURDAY*Telegraph Correspondent Writes Intimately of Dixon Boys.

BY JOHN H. BYERS.

(Staff Correspondents.)

Washington, D. C., May 26, 1919.—Our boys are back. I saw and talked with nearly all of them at Camp Mills, L. I., Sunday. With Henry S. Dixon and Captain Preston, I reached the camp about 10 o'clock and remained with the boys until 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

How glad they were to see us. There was "Red" Kelly, who looks as fine as a new fiddle. "Bob" Connors looks like the soldier he is. Same old "Bob." He has a new story to tell every few minutes. Warren Graft looks well. Captain Lewis, and his brother, Ira, are fine and longing to get home. "Choppy" Rosbrook had his crack band play a concert Sunday afternoon. "Choppy" hasn't changed one bit. We saw Frank McCarty of Battery F, 122 regiment. He looks fine. I wish I could say a line about each boy, but I can't recall each name. However, I will say that Phalen says he is coming home in time to attend his sister's wedding. And Hardesty says he will be there on time. "Hopper" Smith, color bearer with the Headquarters Company, is as happy as a kid with his new boots.

Well, they will be home with you very soon. I know Dixon will greet them with a rousing reception. Folks, you can't do too much for these boys. They deserve all you give them. Let everyone turn out to greet them. They are certainly glad to get back to the United States. Each one of them says this is the best country on earth. They are none the worse, however, for their trip across and the hard fighting they did. And what a wonderful experience for these boys. They will only appreciate what they went through, in years to come, much better than they do now. Our boys, in a manner, are different boys; they are more manly boys. They are men.

Folk, I will never forget the sight I saw in New York harbor. To see that big liner come slowly up the harbor with her precious cargo, was to me the most wonderful sight I ever saw. The boat with our reception party at times pulled up very close to the big liner. The first boy we saw was "Choppy" Rosbrook. We heard him call our names. He was shouting at the top of his voice and waving his arms. Then we saw many of the others. We could see Captain Lewis walking about the deck. Again I say it was a most wonderful sight. We kept alongside the America for at least two miles, all the time cheering and shouting to our boys. Our band was playing "Illinois" and while this was going on many of the persons on the boat were weeping. Several of the boys on the liner were weeping over the joy of coming home.

Near Hoboken, we pulled away from the liner and watched the little tugs guide her to her pier. She docked at Pier No. 5, Hoboken. Before sundown the boys were at Camp Mills, about 25 miles up Long Island.

Before leaving the liner we called through a megaphone that he would see them Sunday at camp.

We left New York Sunday morning at 8:58 o'clock for the camp and in a little while we were there greeting the boys. We experienced no trouble in getting a pass to the camp. Mr. Dixon handled the affair well, and a letter from Congressman McKenzie to the officer in charge helped somewhat. Camp Mills is a beautiful place, sandy and clean. The boys are well taken care of with plenty to eat. Today (Monday) 50 per cent were permitted to go to New York, and, believe me, all whose names were called, went. That was a real vacation for them.

The boys are extremely modest, having very little to say about their part done to end the war. But when home and they "find themselves" I imagine they will tell it. When they gather in bunches at their favorite "stopping" places in Dixon, the war will be fought over. However, they will not be among you very long until they will have many amusing stories to tell about the "frogs," their customs and mode of living, etc. Some of the boys have an interesting story to tell.

"The hours are dragging now," say all our boys. The last quarter in the race home seems to be the longest. The committee told them all about the big reception that is being planned and they are anxious to be with you. First, they want to see the folk. That is natural. They want to spend a few hours in "mamma's" home before they parade. Of course they do. Just think, some of our boys have not been home for two years.

Soon after we arrived at the camp, Mr. Dixon had Captain Preston line the Lee county boys up and while each soldier walked in front of him he handed each man a new five-dollar bill. Say, my good people, you would have given a five spot yourself to see the smile on each lad's face. Some of them had but little money and that five-spot of Mr. Dixon's looked as large as a mountain. I heard one lad say this: "Say fellows, I am going to have a 'banana split' when I reach New York, if it takes the whole five dollars." They were unable to get ice cream in France. Coming over the lads say they had plenty of good food to eat and they were treated like guests by the sailor lads on the big transport. Well, I believe this modest story will tell you something about our boys, and when they reach Dixon I know they will be greeted like the true heroes they are. Then they will talk for you.

Again, I will simply add that watching that big liner come up the harbor with our boys aboard, was the greatest sight I ever saw.

God bless our boys and may they arrive home to you safe and happy.

GERMANS REFUSE TO ALLOW DANISH FOOD TO ENTER SCHLESWIG

Complaint is Made That People in Province Are Going Hungry.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
London, April 17.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—While the attention of the allies is concentrated on the Germans along the Western front, German officials in Schleswig are preventing the Danes, who have the consent of the entente, from shipping food to their own needy countrymen in Schleswig.

This information has been received here by Edmund Grosse, well known English literary critic.

"I learn," he said in a letter to the Morning Post "that the burgomaster of Flensburg declares that the hungry inhabitants of that town, the largest in Schleswig have no need of Danish food."

The same German official, according to Mr. Gosse's information has refused passports to any families in the town and district of Flensburg to cross over into Denmark to accept an offer of food and fuel to receive several thousand Danish-speaking Schleswig children. "If Danes in Flensburg dislike German rule, he puts it, 'they may starve.'"

Mr. Gosse terms as "scandalous" the treatment of Schleswig soldiers repatriated through Denmark.

Schleswig, he understands, is now closed to all persons coming from Denmark.

"On the Rhine, under the eye of England and France," Mr. Gosse observed, "the boche may be meek enough, but he shows little change of heart where he escapes from the eye of the victorious Allies."

Schleswig, the northern half of Schleswig-Holstein between the North and Baltic Seas, has been a province of Prussia since 1864, when it was wrested from Danish control. Under the Peace Treaty of Paris the control of certain zones of Schleswig is to be decided by plebiscite.

Germans Prepare to Send Goods to Italy

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Milan, Tuesday, May 27.—(Delayed)—Immense quantities of German products are stored at Chiasso, on the frontier between Italy and Switzerland, and it is supposed by Germany to renew immediately her commercial relations with Italy, according to Ulysses Bywater of the United States chamber of commerce.

"There are thousands of bicycles of German manufacture at Chiasso," Mr. Bywater told the Associated Press today. "There also are car loads of chemicals and dyes which have been offered Italian merchants at extremely low prices. The high rate of American exchange makes Italian trading with Americans most difficult, while the German mark is at its lowest ebb. This makes the price, when translated into lire most attractive."

"There is a sure market for American goods here but the monetary situation will be solved only by another American loan or by payment of a large indemnity to Italy."

BOOTLEGGING CASES UP NEXT THURSDAY

Mrs. Emma Pottee and Henry Makdonado, arrested recently on charge of bootlegging, were hauled into the county court before Judge Crabtree yesterday afternoon for preliminary hearing. The Makdonado hearing was held in the morning and the case of Mrs. Pottee taken up in the afternoon. Considerable testimony was taken from Mexicans who claimed to have purchased both beer and whiskey from the Pottee place. Attorney H. A. Brooks, who appeared for Mrs. Pottee, through the witnesses, brought out the fact that there was ill-feeling between Makdonado and Mrs. Pottee over a quarrel that had started at the latter's place early last spring. Judge Crabtree has taken both cases under advisement until Thursday.

Y. M. C. A. WORKERS FROM ABROAD HERE

Army Educational Corps Training Soldiers for Vocations.

The magnitude of America's opportunity and her duty in Russia, China and India were outlined to a score of men, who gathered at the Nachusa Tavern yesterday to have luncheon with and hear two renowned Y. M. C. A. workers from those countries. They were Prof. F. W. Robertson, who for 17 years has labored in China and Russia as a representative of the Y. M. C. A., and H. C. Hermann who has been on the Y. M. C. A. staff in the land of the Hindus.

Prof. Robertson has conducted scientific educational work in China, and was so engaged when two years ago he was asked by the Y. M. C. A. board to go to Russia. He expressed the opinion that the all-Russian government would eventually triumph over Bolshevism, but said it was the duty of America to send workers into that country; for only by education can the unrest which centuries of oppression have planted firmly in the breast of the average Russian be dispelled. In China Prof. Robertson said great progress was being made and the two most revered names among the Chinese are "Lincoln" and "Washington."

Mr. Hermann, telling of conditions in India, said that the 1,250,000 soldiers which that country sent to the war "because England was in trouble" have gained confidence in the Y. M. C. A., and are asking Y. M. C. A. secretaries to go into their villages in India and teach them the civilization and religion of which they have gained so fine a taste on the battle fronts. Mr. Hermann also appealed for workers in that country.

COLLEGES WILL HELP TO BUILD NAVAL RESERVE

Special Instructions to Be Given in Many Schools.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, May 29.—Every university and college in the country will be given an opportunity to co-operate in building up a naval reserve officer corps under a plan being developed by Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt, details of which were made public today. The scheme contemplates a four year course in nautical subjects, augmented by several months of post graduate work at the naval academy.

The United States now has an adequate naval reserve force, numbering about 300,000 officers and enlisted men, highly efficient as the result of two years of war service. Every effort will be made, it was said at the navy department to keep the permanent reserve force around the 150,000 mark and to bring the best class of young men into it.

Enroll For Four Years

As proposed the plan is to enroll college freshmen who desire to take the course, for four years. During the first school year the navy department would recommend a course of study along naval lines in connection with the regular college work, including physical training. The work would be under the direct supervision of the college authorities and the commandant of the naval district. At the end of the freshman term members of the training corps would go to camp for six or eight weeks where they would be given a rigid course of practical instruction in marine subjects, military drill and physical exercise. They would be furnished with clothing, food and lodging and nominal pay. During the second school year an advanced course in navigation, higher mathematics and astronomy, international law and naval strategy would be studied and at the end of that and the third school year the embryo officers would be taken aboard war ships for six or eight weeks.

Post Graduate Work

Upon graduating from college members of the corps who had completed the course satisfactorily would be sent to the naval academy for two months of post graduate work along general lines, the government paying all expenses and a salary. Then the successful candidates would be commissioned as ensigns in the reserve and sent to civil life under no obligation to the government except a pledge to serve as officers in emergency and to keep in touch with naval departments.

In order to make the course attractive the tentative plan is to send the training squadrons abroad each summer so that students may study foreign navies. On these cruises the reservists would be seamen, second class, would be given an opportunity to advance through the various non-commissioned grades and would be paid accordingly.

INTERURBAN CAR IS BADLY DAMAGED IN CRASH ON GALENA

A rear end collision of interurban car No. 102, in charge of Motorman Laurie and city car No. 26, in charge of Motorman Latham, occurred Wednesday at the corner of North Galena avenue near Fellows street about 11 o'clock. The rear platform of the interurban car, which was coming into Dixon from Sterling, was badly wrecked while the roof over the vestibule of the city car was considerably damaged.

The interurban car had stopped to discharge a passenger when the city car rounded the curve and ran directly into the rear. The passenger, a woman of advanced age, narrowly escaped receiving serious injury. Motorman Laurie on the interurban car had one of his feet smashed in the collision, but was able to proceed with his duties and drove the 11 o'clock interurban back to Sterling. Motorman Latham who was handling the city car, reported that the brakes failed to work when he tried to stop and prevent the collision.

"Superintendent Courmyer tested the brakes on the city car as soon as it was brought to the car barns on West First street and found them to be in good working order. An investigation was started at once by the superintendent and Motorman Latham dismissed from the company's service."

TEXAS WILL HARVEST 40 MILLION BUSHELS OF WHEAT THIS YEAR

State's Largest Crop is Worth $91,000,000 at Government Price.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Dallas, Tex., May 28.—The two million acres of Texas land sown in wheat last autumn are expected to produce a crop of 40,000,000 bushels, five times larger than any previous Texas wheat crop. The Texas growers, guaranteed a price of $2.23 a bushel, figure a total return of $91,000,000 in round figures, with a $10,000,000 reduction as the approximate cost of production.

Districts in west Texas and the Panhandle belt are recruiting a huge army for harvesting the crop within the next sixty days. For the first time in three years the drought-stricken sections of west Texas have use for reapers.

The reapers have already started on the southern edge of the grain belt and will continue moving north, county by county, and state by state, until they reach Canada next fall.

Many districts never before used for growing wheat were sown last fall, including tracts that formerly grew cotton.

Wheat statisticians have figured that the Texas crop reduced to bread, would make 1,120,000,000 loaves or 11,200,000,000 sandwiches.

HAWKER AND GRIEVE ARE DECORATED FOR "DEVOTION TO DUTY"

King George Honors Air
Pilots at Reception
Given in London.

London, Eng., May 28.—Describing weather conditions and how his airplane ran into strong northeasterly winds, Harry G. Hawker said to a representative of the Daily Mail: "The weather was no hindrance and we should have made the flight for the trouble occasioned by the cooling system. We could have got through the worst of the weather in a couple of hours."

"The wireless was not a great success," Lieut. Commander Mackenzie Grieve said. "We had a new set from England but a trial flight with it was impossible owing to the danger of risking the machine on the limited air dome space. On starting we found the spark very feeble and only a small amperage obtainable, owing to the undersized propeller used to drive it. I sent out messages every half hour and think they should have been heard if any ship had been near but never had any reply. My chief object was to let them know we were still in the air. During the last few hours when the engine was throttled down, no spark could be generated but I sent 'SOS' signals every fifteen minutes on an off chance of the spark operating."

Wireless No Good.
"From a navigating point of view I placed no reliance on the wireless other than as a means of asking the positions of such ships as we might pass. The ships had previously been asked by wireless from St. Johns to make known their positions if they saw us by day or if we fired lights by night. As we saw no vessel, no light was fired. One vessel has reported having seen a light but the observers on board may have described the red glow of the exhaust."

"We preferred to navigate chiefly by celestial observations and my position as I worked it out by the stars, was virtually correct. I found, when picked up."

Are Given Insignia.
King George bestowed on Hawker and Grieve the insignia of the air force cross. They are the first actual recipients of this order.

An immense crowd gathered in front of Buckingham palace to witness the arrival of Hawker and Grieve, who were loudly cheered. The crowd also gave them an ovation when they left the palace.

The air force cross with which King George decorated Hawker and Grieve is a new honor which is bestowed for "devotion to duty."

FABLES THAT POINT MORAL

Vienna Journal's Amusing Story of Imaginary Conversation Taking Place Between Two Horses.

Even while the world war was raging horse races were held as usual in the suburbs of Vienna, and the sport attracted large crowds, though the betting was not as brisk and as active as in times of peace. One of the newspapers of Vienna—a publication entitled Peace—often made sarcastic comments on this, and in an issue of recent date, which has reached this country, it contains an amusing article on what horses would say of the matter if they could talk. The imaginary conversation between a mare and a stallion, both participants in the races, follows:

"Say, mare, how is it you stand for a round-shouldered colored monkey riding on your neck, digging sharp steel into your flanks, at the same time whipping you viciously?"

"Don't ask such a stupid question. It simply has to be."

"Why?"

"Because. We must suffer all and give up all—lungs, heart, muscles, nerves and even life to battle and win. That's a horse's privilege."

"But why should we battle and win?"

"First, to win the prize, and, second, for the sake of honor."

"But we do not get the prize nor the honor, either."

"No, but when we win our master gives us a kindly tap and strokes our mane, perhaps."

"Ah, but in the heat of the race, when your breath is almost gone and you feel you can run no further and you are about to drop, what are your thoughts then?"

"Then I simply say to myself: 'You must hold out; you must not give up, and the whip and the spurs keep me going.'"

"Did you never think of throwing your rider?"

"Never. How can you ask such a question? I am for him with heart and soul."

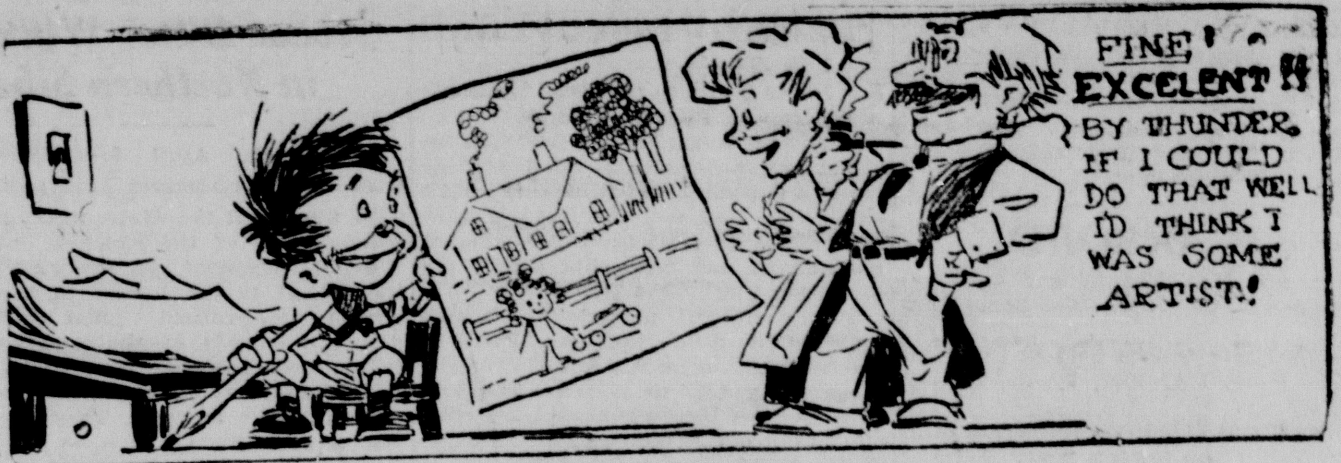

"Oh, you old four-legged beast. In you there lives a human soul. It's disgusting."—New York Tribune.

Life of a File.
Efficiency experts have been studying files and find that the life of one of these tools, on the average, is 25,000 strokes. To employ a file for more than its normal period of usefulness, it is claimed, more than doubles the cost of the work.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Honey Found in Tree Tops.
Quantities of honey are found in the African forests by the natives in hollow trees. The honey is generally at the summit of the tree, and the men knock down the tree, and smoke the bees out of their lodging with burning grass. The honey is then quickly collected and taken to camp.

INSIGNIA, CURTAINS, MADE FROM SKIRTS

Blue broadcloth skirts used for organization insignia and plaid summer dresses reconstructed into window curtains are after war economies of the nine Y. W. C. A. secretaries in Archangel, Russia.

These secretaries have just succeeded, in the face of food and cloth shortages, in opening a Y. W. C. A. Hostess House for American troops stationed in Archangel, a town behind the allied lines. It was necessary to hunt up a volute summer dress which one of the secretaries had discarded for heavy winter clothes in order to have curtains at the windows. They live on regulation army rations.

Archangel is the fourth city in Russia where the Y. W. C. A. has established work. Centers were opened first in Petrograd and Moscow and then in Samara, 900 miles eastward from Moscow.

Miss Elizabeth Boies, head of Russian work and one of the few Americans who remained in that country throughout the revolution, is en route to America by way of England to recruit workers for Russia.

A second Y. W. C. A. Hostess House, for wives and children of soldiers, is soon to be opened at Castner, Calu, Hawaiian Islands, to care for the overflow of women and children from the first house, which opened some months ago in answer to a call from the commanding officer of the camp.

During 15 days in November 2,152 visitors were entertained at the house, including women and children, of the following nationalities: Philippino, Hawaiian, Portuguese, Spanish, Russian, Porto Rican, Korean, Japanese and American.

Wisdom of the Ancients.

It is my custom every night to run all over the words and actions of the past day; for why should I fear the sight of my errors when I can admonish and forgive myself? I was a little too hot in such a dispute; my opinion might as well have been spared, for it gave offense and did no good at all. The thing was true; but it truths are not to be spoken at all times.—Seneca.

Staff as Symbol of Authority.

The use of a staff as a symbol of authority was not confined to kings. It might be used by any leader as indicated in Judges 5:14, where for "pen of the writer" is the authorized version we should read "scepter of the leader."

'Tis Not So.

For Outdoor Chess Games.

Chessmen, which range from two to three and one-half feet in height, made of aluminum, collapsible, and packed in a special trunk, have been given to the library of the University of Wisconsin. A Milwaukee man, now dead, designed them for use in public contests, on large indoor or outdoor chess boards, with a view to increasing popular interest in the game.

Preserve Apples.

Use dry sand which has been heated and cooled again. Cover the bottom of a stone jar with sand, put in one layer of apples, having the fruit about one-half inch apart, cover with sand, put in another layer of apples, and so on till the jar is full. The jar must be closed air-tight and kept in a cool place. The sand will keep the apples dry and preserve the flavor.

Deep Stuff.

London Answers tells the story of a musical student who, one night at Queen's Hall, slithered up to a couple of long-haired professors in the hope of hearing some learned conversation. "Ten cents each," one of the professors was observing, "and not even new-laid!"

An Ancient Custom.

The amice was a long cloak worn by priests and pilgrims in olden days, and is still preserved in the strips of embroidery worn over the shoulders of Roman Catholic priests and in the white bands of Protestant clergy.

MAKE OLD SHOES WEAR LIKE NEW

"I had Neolin Soles put on my shoes—wore these shoes every day for fifteen months, then had Neolin good-soles put on. They are still in good condition," writes F. T. Evans, of Seattle, Washington.

This is cutting shoe bills down to the minimum through Neolin Soles. Anyone can do this if he will follow Mr. Evans' example, and have his shoes re-bottomed with Neolin Soles. These tough, durable soles cost no more than soles that give only ordinary wear. And all good repair shops have them.

Neolin Soles come on new shoes, too—in many styles for men, women and children. They are created by Science to be all that soles should be—comfortable and waterproof, as well as long-wearing. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear any other heels.

DIXON TEMPLARS TO AURORA ON SUNDAY

It is expected with weather conditions permitting that no less than a dozen automobiles, carrying members of Dixon Commandery Knights Templar, will leave early Sunday morning for Aurora and about half that number of cars bearing members from Amboy will join the Dixon delegation. An order has been received by the local commandery providing for an enormous celebration to be held in Aurora on Sunday, June 1, Ascension Sunday in honor of Right Eminent Sir Knight James McCredie of that city, Grand Commander of the Knights Templar of Illinois.

Plans have been arranged for the Sir Knights to assemble at Wilder's Field and form a line of march. The parade will proceed down through the business section of Aurora to the First Methodist church, the Presbyterian church, the high school auditorium and possibly other churches, there to listen to Ascension Day sermons. The hour for the holding of these services is set for 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The plumed Knights are expected to arrive from all of the larger cities in northern Illinois between the hours of noon and 2 o'clock. Special trains will bear Chicago Knights to the city and an escort of 200 members of Aurora Commandery will greet the visitors and lead the parade. A number of bands and drum corps will also be features of the procession. Weather conditions permitting it has been conservatively estimated that no less than 3000 Knights will participate in the parade.

Luxembourg Asked to Take Part in Meeting

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Luxembourg, Tuesday, May 27.—(Delayed).—Secretary of State Reuter today read in the chamber of deputies a letter from President Wilson inviting a Luxembourg delegation to Paris. He said the government was ready to tell the peace conference that the people of Luxembourg wish their country to remain autonomous and to conclude an economic union with France or Belgium or, if that be found impossible, to open negotiations with those countries to learn their conditions.

He added that the government would also ask that Luxembourg be admitted to the league of nations. According to a Paris telegram the delegation will be received on Wednesday afternoon.

THE PROMOTER'S WIFE

By JANE PHELPS.

ONCE MORE BARBARA CONFIDES IN MR. FREDERICK

CHAPTER CVI

While I was gag of Blanche's visit, it in a way made me very uncomfortable. More so perhaps than I had been since the day I had been so snubbed by Scott. I tried to put myself in a business man's place, but try as I would I could see no reason why a legitimate business should be carried on in such a way, why it should be necessary to use the means Neil was using to interest them in his projects — if those projects were perfectly legitimate ones.

But I said nothing to Neil, altho I told him of Mrs. Orton's visit. He seemed rather surprised I thought at first, but afterward I concluded I had been mistaken. He asked me no questions, and seemed to take it for granted that it was simply a social call without any ulterior object.

Yet while I said nothing to Neil, I did not keep her visit—the cause of it rather, a secret. Mr. Frederick called in the afternoon of the following day and found me alone, altho it was my afternoon at home. My afternoons were not as well attended as formerly, as a cause of chagrin to me.

I poured him tea, then said: "I had a caller yesterday; Mrs. Orton. You know she was so nice to me the other night that I began to like her again—I used to think she was really charming when her husband was alive—she came to tell me why she received those women." I would not betray her in any way, but I felt I must put the questions which were so bothering me to someone. "She said that men like Tearle and Connor weren't happy unless they were entertained by hand some women who could play cards." I realized as I finished that I had not said what I intended, and that it sounded rather peevish.

"Yes, they are rather fond of the ladies." "Tell me please, Mr. Frederick, is it necessary to do business in that way—legitimate business, I mean. It seems so strange to me. Father always attended to business at his office. I thought that was what offices were for." I tried to speak lightly. I did not want him to think I was too much worried.

"I scarcely know how to answer you, Barbara," he had hesitated over my name. He seldom addressed me so. "But it is done sometimes. Men like Tearle and Connor are hard to handle sometimes. They are hard drinkers, and want their own way, especially when in New York. They have the arrogance of men who have made great fortunes quickly."

"But why mix business with cards and—ladies?" I asked. "Why not keep them separate. Can it not be done?" "I—perhaps—" he slowly sipped his tea, and I knew he was trying to think how to satisfy me without blaming Neil. "Please Mr. Frederick don't treat me as a child. Neil won't tell me anything about his affairs. I hear things, and I can't stand being kept in the dark any longer. You are my good friend, aren't you? If you are, please tell me what to do to get Neil away from those people and from—that business."

I was so ignorant, so absolutely unversed in Neil's affairs that he, any one could see at once how little I knew of business. I think that was why he was sorry for me and tried to help me. I had shown him I wanted to help Neil. It had made no difference that he cared for me, really I think it made him more anxious to help Neil. He knew that I loved my husband passionately, and that I would be true to him always no matter what happened.

"I wish I could," he honestly do," he replied in his peculiar way. "I'd give a good deal to set him straight. But I'm afraid he'll have to come a cropper first—before he will listen to anyone."

"You have talked with him?" "Yes, only yesterday. I called at his office. I had seen Scott, and Scott means mischief. He claims that Mr. Forbes has misrepresented his properties and so has induced him to invest. He didn't say misrepresented, but that sounds better. I tried to pacify him, but he wouldn't listen to me. Then I went to your husband, and he wouldn't listen either. I guess I'm not a very convincing talker. Mr. Forbes thinks Scott is bluffing when he threatens. I am not so sure. Sometimes a snapping dog barks."

"I saw Mr. Scott, he ignored my greeting." "Um—so he can bite. We must try and make his bite harmless but I can't see how unless your husband helps us."

ROBERT FALLS AND BREAKS HIS ARM

CHAPTER CVII

Just after Mr. Frederick had said he could do nothing for Neil unless he himself wanted to help, others came and we had no further opportunity for talk together. I urged him to remain to dinner, but he had an engagement. I hoped Neil would come home and that if we both talked to him he might listen. I knew from Frederick's manner that things had reached some sort of a crisis.

Miss Wilson came in just as Frederick was leaving. She persuaded him to wait until she had a cup of tea, promising to drop him at his hotel if he would.

"I have a new Rolls Royce. I should like you to see it," she had said with an arch look at him. All the women I knew that had met him liked this blunt friend of mine; this man who called things by their names, and whose word was never questioned.

"That is an inducement. I mostly ride in flivvers at home," was his characteristic answer. Then Maud Wilson remarked:

"I haven't seen you at Mrs. Powers lately. Mrs. Forbes. She had a wonderful affair the other night. I looked for you and your handsome husband."

I made some sort of a reply, my cheeks burning. Fortunately no one saw Mr. Frederick hear her. He ignored what she had said, and without giving me time to reply commenced to talk of her new car. She was immediately interested, and so I was spared the mortification of an answer.

So we were absolutely dropped by Mrs. Powers, and of course by her set. The one in which I had hoped to move. It had been a large affair, and we had not gone any further with my social planning. I should have been laughed at, my efforts a failure. My lips quivered as I thought of it. I caught the pitying look in Mr. Frederick's eyes and pulled myself together sufficiently to bid them good afternoon in my usual manner.

But after everyone had gone I threw myself on my bed and sobbed for half an hour. It was hard to be slighted, harder because I knew I had done nothing to deserve it. I would tell Neil. It might be a good reason to urge more caution on his part as to his associates, and his business methods.

But when finally Neil came in I had forgotten that such people as the Powers existed; or that I had ever had any social aspirations.

I was bathing my face, so that Neil might not know I had been crying when I heard a scream, then my boy calling for me. I rushed from the room, and down the stairs. While playing in front of the house, Robert had fallen in such a way as to break his arm. We carried him up to his room, then called a doctor. I was almost mad with pity for the poor child until he came; then faint when Robert screamed as it was set. Fortunately Neil did come home, and altho he went out later he remained with us until Robert fell asleep, worn out with the pain.

I sat beside my boy until Neil came in a little after midnight. When he insisted I go to bed I had no strength to resist, so gave up my place to him. We had a nurse, but both idolized our boy and would not have dreamed of leaving him alone with her under the circumstances.

They did not call me until almost time for Neil to go to the office. He had snatched a little rest on a couch he had brought into Robert's room, but he looked white and worn.

"A good bath and some coffee will set me up," when I told him he looked tired, and then he hurried away to get ready for the day. He looked in and bade us good bye before he went down town, but we had no time for any talk; even had we had the inclination.

All day I was kept too busy to think it is hard to take care of a sick person, no matter what their age. But when an active healthy boy is obliged to remain quiet, one's wits must be sharp indeed if they succeed in entertaining him. Robert like all boys of my time, devised means to amuse him. I told him stories and when all else failed carried him down to the music room and played for him. He loved music and always kept very quiet when I played.

About four o'clock I heard Neil come in. I called: "We are here in the music room, dear, come in." When he did not reply I went around on the stool to see him standing in the door, a grayness in his face, a despair in his eyes that frightened me. He motioned me to say nothing. Then carried Robert up stairs, and left him with his nurse. I had followed slowly, wondering what dreadful thing had happened. That it was dreadful, I was sure.

POWERFUL PILE REMEDY DISCOVERED

Has Never Failed to End Most Obstinate Cases of Piles in Few Days.

For years it has been proved that so-called external remedies applied to or inserted in the rectum cannot cure piles, and at the best can only give temporary relief. Surgical operations also do not remove this cause, but simply the formation.

This wonderful prescription, known as Miro Pile Remedy, is so efficient in the treatment of piles, that even chronic cases of from 20 to 30 years standing with profuse bleeding have been completely cured in from three to ten days. Think of it! Just a few doses of a carefully balanced prescription and the most persistent case of piles is absorbed, never to return.

All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice. Surely it's worth the little trouble to obtain it to be rid of the piles forever.

IMPORTANT—What is known as itching piles are not piles in the true sense of the word, although this condition may accompany a true case of piles. For this condition Miro Pile Ointment has been prepared as in such cases it is not necessary to take the internal prescription.

If your druggist cannot supply you we will gladly send either of the above, mail charges prepaid, on receipt of price. Internal Treatment $1.50, War Tax 6c. Ointment, 50c, War Tax 2c extra. Guaranteed Remedies Co., Elyria, Ohio.

Americans Complain About Bitter Winter in Northern Siberia

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Vladivostok, April 5.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Americans who spent the winter in Omsk, the headquarters of the Kolchak anti-Bolshevik government, say the winter was the coldest in the history of Western Siberia and caused great suffering among hundreds of thousands of refugees from European Russia who have found temporary shelter in Moscow and other Siberian centers. They say that 500 persons were frozen to death in Omsk and that thousands suffered frozen feet and hands. The temperature often reached 57 to 60 degrees below zero. Fortunately, little wind blew across the tepes but when the wind did blow the cold was intolerable.

The stoutest fur coat could not stop it from penetrating to the marrow. As if by magic, the streets became deserted. Americans often had their cheeks and noses frozen and their hands, despite woolen gloves and mittens, were always stiff an aching. Reckless exposure of the ears was always dangerous, sometimes resulting in the lobes freezing and falling off at the slightest touch.

Despite the terrible cold, the visitor there feels buoyant and strong and usually feels like doing an extraordinary amount of work. The exceeding dryness of the atmosphere, the Siberian said, is conducive to long life and a sure cure for tuberculosis. Despite the rigors of the climate the people often live to be eighty or ninety years old. Nevertheless, the average American who had to spend the winter in the Omsk district as did some of the assistants of John P. Stevens, the American engineer in charge of the great Siberian railway suffered severely.

American President of German Club Quits

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Reading, Pa., May 2.—William Burns the first American citizen not of German birth or origin ever elected president of the Harmonic-Maennerchor society, this city's wealthiest German club, with 1,000 members, today announced that he has resigned the presidency. Mr. Burns said he found a German flag flying from the staff when the Reading soldiers of the Rainbow division came home, and that he tore it down, putting up the only American flag in the house. "I was misinformed as to the real character of the club and the courts ought to close the place," he is quoted as having said.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer in this vicinity that if two bottles of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.

Allenru relieves at once. Immediately after you start to take it the good work begins. It searches out the uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels.

It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two days, and even in cases where the suffering is most painful all traces disappear in a few days.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discover of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money, unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed your druggist to guarantee it in every instance.

AFTER EFFECTS OF THE "FLU"

CHIROPRACTIC achieved wonderful results in the recent "Flu" epidemic. It will achieve just as wonderful results in dealing with the "after-effects" of this disease. If you have been a victim of the "Flu", make sure that you are completely normal and that no after effects are lurking in your system.

Some common after effects are chronic bronchitis, tuberculosis, heart trouble, angina pectoris, chronic gastritis, chronic nephritis and cystitis, coughs, and some patients have developed rheumatism. Many cases are disposed to catch "colds" on the slightest change in weather.

Chiropractic can restore you to normal condition. Have a thorough analysis taken and make sure of your condition. The adjustments will take care of your case as all these after effects yield readily to Chiropractic. In any event, it will be very wise to take a course of Chiropractic.

Look after your body just as you would a high-grade machine. Take care of it; be healthy. Adjustments will restore you to health. There are no "ifs" or "buts" about this. It is just a plain, unexaggerated statement of fact.

LEAGUE COVENANT IS PRACTICAL ORGANISM, SAYS SEN. ROBINSON

Makes Speech Before Senate Asking That Pact Be Approved.

ROBINSON SUPPORTS COVENANT

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, May 29.—The league of nations was supported as a logical and practical organism, entirely consistent with the American constitution, by Senator Robinson, democrat, of Arkansas, in a speech before the senate. Opponents of the league, the senator charged, are making a campaign of misrepresentation setting up flimsy objections that the proposal violates American traditions.

Replying directly to the constitutional objections raised by Senator Sherman, republican, of Illinois, and other league opponents, the Arkansas senator said the same objections applied with equal force to many previous treaties which had been found impracticable and beneficial.

"A treaty is not unconstitutional," he asserted, "merely because it contains agreements, the execution of which requires the exercise powers vested by the constitution exclusively in the executive and legislative branches of the government. To declare that no treaty can be made which requires legislative action to execute it, or which pledges the government to do something exclusively within the power of the executive, would render the government powerless to maintain foreign relations."

Treaties Impose Obligations

"The sole power to levy taxes is vested in congress. Many treaties have been made obligating the government to impose certain rates on exports and to collect specified rates on imports. Treaties of reciprocity have been negotiated with foreign nations involving mutual rates to be levied on commerce. Such treaties require legislation to put them into operation, but they are not unconstitutional."

"The United States has already entered into many treaties pledging itself not to engage in war against certain foreign nations until the expiration of a definite period, and it has also agreed to settle many disputes by arbitration. Notwithstanding such agreements, congress still has the power to declare war."

"With respect to the mandatory provision, the only question of a constitutional nature is whether the United States is forbidden to govern or assist in the government of other countries. There is no question under the revised draft of compelling the United States to act as a mandatary. The language expressly makes it optional."

"As early as 1846 the United States gained the sovereignty of New Granada over the isthmus of Panama. By the treaty of 1903 we agreed to maintain the independence of the republic of Panama. In 1916 the United States by treaty gained the independence of Santo Domingo and agreed to assist in the administration of its affairs. The declaration that article 10 authorizes the executive council to involve the world in war is absurd. The language of the article is in case of such aggression, or in case of any threat, or danger of such aggression, the executive council shall advise upon the means by which the obligation shall be fulfilled. It is perfectly clear that the executive council can compel no action under this article. The use of the word advise defeats such a construction."

Says Lodge Inconsistent.

Declaring republican opponents of the league were attempting to make the treaty a partisan issue, Mr. Robinson charged republican senate leader Lodge with "ridiculous inconsistency," and read the following portion of a speech purported to have been made by Mr. Lodge in an address to a peace society here in May, 1916:

"The limit of voluntary arbitration has, I think, been reached. . . . I think the next step is that to put force behind international peace. We may not solve it in that way, but if we cannot solve it in that way it can be solved in no other. I do not believe that when Washington us against entangling alliances he meant for one moment that we should not join with other civilized nations if a method could be found to diminish war and encourage peace."

U. S. Has Obligation

"Our obligation to cooperate in the discharge of the responsibilities resulting from victory are as undebatable as our privilege to enjoy the fruits of triumph. It would be cowardly, unthinkable to leave Poland, Serbia, Ukraine, and Jugo Slavia to the mercy of the central empires should they be rehabilitated, or to abandon to anarchy the colonies and territories separated by the war from the central empires."

"It is senseless to imagine that we have reached the end of international disputes. It is equally senseless to rely upon the old haphazard pre-war method of settling these disputes. That the league of nations would make wars impossible seems to me conclusive. By the elimination of secrecy in treaties and extension of popular control to international diplomacy, comity and good will supersede suspicion and intrigue."

World War is First Without Smallpox

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, April 28.—By Mail.—The world war will be held unique in the fact that it has not been accompanied by an outbreak of smallpox. This may be due in part to the precautions taken in urging Paris to be vaccinated or re-vaccinated. At any rate more than 1,374,000 persons were vaccinated during the war, and only 56 cases of smallpox reported, of which 26 were fatal.

Canadian Great War Veterans Plan Great Convention in 1920

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Winnipeg, Man., May 29.—Great War Veterans' associations of Canada are in communication with like associations in other parts of the British dominion concerning a world convention next year in South Africa, which is regarded as the most central meeting place in the empire.

It is understood an international association of war veterans is being considered. Statements have been made that in view of the fact that soldier sacrifices made victory possible, the soldiers should formally outline their views on soldier relief, reconstruction, peace conditions and other measures.

The National Union of Mutilated and Restored Soldiers of France has exchanged greetings with the Dominion Great War Veterans associations. The Union is expected to send delegates to the proposed world convention of soldiers who fought for the British Empire. It is possible that other nations also will be invited.

French to Provide Committee of Sixty to Consider Treaty

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, Tuesday, May 27.—(Delayed).—The chamber of deputies today adopted a resolution providing for a special committee of 60 for consideration of the treaty.

The national committee of the general labor federation has passed resolutions condemning the secrecy in which the treaty has been framed and protesting against an incomplete knowledge of the document.

The resolution also protest what are called the denial of the right of self determination of peoples; disguised annexation; the repudiation of solemn engagements concerning the league of nations, and the return to the old system of alliances; the absence of an international financial system and economic organizations; a continuation of the economic war and the failure to incorporate in the treaty a real international labor charter.

The foregoing report bears a similarity to one received from London Tuesday night reporting the destruction by fire of a barracks at Ludwigschafen, on the Rhine opposite Mannheim, causing the death of forty soldiers and the injury of one hundred. This dispatch also was based on a German report, coming from Berlin by way of Copenhagen to a London news agency. Ludwigschafen is in the French area.

EVERY BUILDING IN DIXON SHOULD HAVE DECORATION*Committee in Charge of Welcome Celebration Expects it.

With June 12 definitely set as the day Dixon and Lee county will pay homage to their returned soldiers, the committee in charge of the big all-day celebration to be held here is desirous that every business house and every dwelling in the city be decorated more elaborately than ever before. And accordingly the appeal is made through the columns of the Telegraph, that property owners, residents and merchants begin at once to plan their decorations and secure the material for such adornments.

Along the line of march of the big parade, the route of which will be announced early in the coming week, and in the business section of the city it is especially desired that the decorations be complete. It will be impossible for the committee in charge of decorations, headed by H. W. Harms, to visit the individuals and secure their promises to "dress up" their places of business and their homes, and it is hoped that the spirit of the occasion will permeate the indifference toward decorating which many usually exhibit and that the returned fighters will be given concrete evidence that every citizen of Dixon welcomes them home by having every building in the city showing some kind of patriotic decoration in honor of their coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Raffenberg spent today with friends in Rochelle.

TOMORROW'S PROGRAM

Paris, May 29.—The counter proposal formulated by the German delegation at Versailles have been delivered to the French authorities. The proposals will go before the council of four this morning.

The German reply was received in installments. The first installment comprised 88 pages. Other installments followed and it was understood that delivery of the document would be completed within the time limit.

The reply is written in German and bears the caption: "Observations of the German Delegation on the conditions of peace."

TERMS DELIVERED AT 12:30

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Versailles, May 29.—Baron Von Yersner of the German delegation, informally delivered the completed counter proposals to Colonel Henry, the French liaison officer, at 12:30 o'clock. The German explained that the translations would be sent later. The volume was not bound, corner fasteners holding together the 146 pages.

Ministers Landsberg and Giesberts of the German delegation will leave tonight for Berlin. Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, chairman of the delegation will remain as he has to sign three more notes to the peace conference.

OPPOSE SAARE DECISION

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, Wednesday, May 28.—(Delayed.)—In the section treating on territorial questions the German counter proposals to the peace terms say, according to a synopsis reaching Paris, by way of Tasele, that "the territory of the Saar, inhabited by 600,000 persons is to be detached from the German empire solely because of claims upon its coal."

It is pointed out that for fifteen years the territory is to be controlled by a commission "in the nomination of which the population has no choice."

Regarding Schleswig-Holstein, the German reply remarks that the frontier which will be voted upon under the treaty "goes much further, even than the Danish government desires."

HOW GERMANY WOULD PAY

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Berlin, Wednesday, May 28.—(Delayed.)—According to a semi-official statement the full indemnity which Germany offers to pay in her counter proposals will include sums going to Belgium against advances by the allies and also the value of all machinery and civil property surrendered by Germany since the armistice.

It is further conditioned upon territorial arrangements. That is, if the imperial territory is reduced, the sum must be correspondingly distributed, Alsace-Lorraine and Posen, for instance, bearing their proportionate shares.

The conservative press of Berlin condemns the German counter proposals, especially the financial and military concessions.

The pan-German Gazette brands the reply as "suicide" and the Post says: "The German people are doomed to slavery between two masters until a new Germany arrives to break the chains." The Tagliche Rundschau says "The German reply is fully as depressing as the entente terms."

AMERICANS WHO LOST HOLDINGS IN GERMANY WILL BE REIMBURSED

A. Mitchell Palmer Will Settle with Proceeds of German Property.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, May 29.—Americans temporarily residents in enemy territory during the war will have little difficulty in having their property returned to them under the new conditions following the signing of the armistice. Attorney General Palmer today told the Chicago bar association, discussing the work of the alien property custodian's office.

"When the enemy character of persons rests solely upon their residence, it will be seen that by change of residence into non-enemy territory they lose their enemy character. The attorney general has adopted a liberal interpretation of the act, which permits such persons when they lost their enemy character to be treated as if they had always been non-enemy persons and to have their property returned upon a proper showing of loyalty."

American citizens who lost their property in Germany will be allowed, in the opinion of the attorney general, to present claims to this government, which will see that they are reimbursed from German holdings here. He said that would be much better than turning property back to Germans, for he foresaw that the Germans would not be welcome as business men upon American soil within the next decade at least.

Give His Experiences

Much new light on the work of running to earth enemy interests in the United States was given by the attorney general, who was alien property custodian before he entered the cabinet. He recounted how it was discovered that eighteen German-owned insurance companies and the big Orenstein-Koppel company, near Pittsburgh, manufacturing dump cars, cranes and inside railroads, insisted always that plans of the factories of the firms with which they did business, including U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Midvale and Carnegie, should be furnished so that the blue prints might be sent to the home office in Berlin.

"I am not a suspicious person," Mr. Palmer said, "but when I discovered that our great munition plants were being blown up and that the bombs were always planted in the most vulnerable spot by somebody who knew every foot of the plans of those mills, I began to

OLD POSTAGE RATES BACK IN EFFECT SOON

Dixon post office officials have received notice from the federal post office department that the old rate of two cents an ounce or fraction thereof for letters and other first-class mail matter, which prevailed prior to November 2, 1917, will be resumed July 1. Postal cards, after that date, will require only one cent postage, instead of two. The present first class mail rate is three cents an ounce or fraction thereof, and was placed in effect as a wartime measure.

UNCLE SAM IN ROLE OF SCHOOLMASTER TO 200,000 OF FIGHTERS

Paris, April 22.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Uncle Sam is now a fully certified schoolmaster with about 200,000 khaki-clad pupils. This is the result of the establishment of the Educational Corps of the United States army to provide training for vocations and academic instruction for young men in the army.

The Educational Corps is under the direction of Brigadier General Robert I. Rees, who militarized the American colleges last fall. Under him is an executive commission of three educators, Dr. Frank E. Spaulding, Superintendent of Schools in Cleveland, Dr. John Erskine, Professor of English at Columbia and Dr. Kenyon L. Butterfield, President of the Massachusetts Agricultural college. In all about 7500 instructors, including a number of men of high standing in American education, are teaching the American soldiers the way to progress. Everything from a, b, c to university subjects and from stenography to engineering is included within the curriculum of this great and unique college.

The army schools were in full operation by January, equipped with $1500 worth of books specially ordered from America and provided in part by the American Library association. But there has been a shortage of books and often the book has had to serve for a whole class.

Many hundreds of army schools have been established throughout France wherever there are enough American soldiers to warrant. General Pershing's order required a post school in every place where 500 or more men were stationed and as the schools had to be opened at once all sorts of queer places, from barns to monasteries, were used as classrooms, until regular quarters could be provided. The soldiers are studying in barns, stable lofts, aerodromes, army barracks and in one case in a convent. Meantime the army is endeavoring to provide adequate quarters and sufficient books for its 200,000 students. In cities like Coblenz, the city school buildings are used without interfering with the regular school life of the children.

These post schools may be termed the primary schools of the army educational system, through this is inexact as in many of these schools more advanced education is being given to officers and men are unable to leave their posts and attend the divisional schools or the universities. The men attend these post schools after their regular day's work.

20 ASHTON BLOCKS TO BE PAVED SOON

Plans for the paving of certain streets in Ashton took on definite shape during the past few days when a petition was circulated among the property owners and gladly signed up by nearly all of them. The petitions will be presented at the meeting of the village boards next Monday evening.

The petition first circulated includes Main street later named Lincoln Way from the Knapp garage to the west end of the street. It also includes the cross streets from the Northwestern railroad which go through to the new Lincoln Highway known as north First street, with the exception of Paddock avenue on which street paving will be only laid on the block in front of the school building.

This calls for 14 blocks of pavement besides the intersections. The petition asks that the pavement be laid of cement.

HAWKER JEERS YANK FLYERS.

Harry Hawker, Australian aviator whose nervy attempt to cross the Atlantic aroused admiration the world over, made a speech in London yesterday in which he jeered at the American airmen and deprecated their feat of being the first to cross the Atlantic in the air.
He spoke of having a "ship every 20 yards." He said: "If you put a ship every 50 miles it shows you have no fight in your motor." Well, an American motor got across.

But the crowd of 300 Englishmen, who a moment before had cheered his reference to the landing at Lisbon of the American seaplane, maintained an absolute silence when Hawker finished his slur on the Americans, and probably that is the best thing for us to do, also.

MAKE THE ARCH PERMANENT.

The Victory Arch that has just been erected in celebration of the great appearance that many persons have suggested that it be made permanent and preserved in its original position.

If the arch were covered with stucco, covered with vines and lettered appropriately as, "Welcome to Dixon," it would be a very unique and attractive feature in its present location between the county and federal buildings.

PRES. WILSON'S MEMORIAL DAY MESSAGE

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Washington, May 29.—President Wilson has cabled the following Memorial Day message to the American people:

"My fellow countrymen: Memorial Day wears this year an added significance and I wish, if only by a message, to take part with you in its observance and in expressing the sentiments which it inevitably suggests. In observing the day we commemorate not only the reunion of our own country but also now the liberation of the world from one of the most serious dangers to which free government and the free life of men were ever exposed. We have buried the gallant and now immortal men who died in this great war of liberation with a new sense of consecration.
Our thoughts and purpose now are consecrated to the maintenance of the liberty of the world and of the union of its people in a single comradeship of liberty and of right. It was for this that our men conscientiously offered their lives. They came to the field of battle with the high spirit and pure heart of crusaders. We must never forget the duty that their sacrifice has laid upon us of fulfilling their hopes and their purpose to the utmost. This it seems to me is the impressive lesson and the inspiring mandate of the day.

U. S. Pays Cost of Bringing Soldiers'
Brides to America

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Brest, May 19.—(Delayed)—American soldiers who married French girls are permitted by Uncle Sam to bring home their brides at the expense of the government.

Recently there appeared at the troop movement office a burly sergeant accompanied by a woman bearing a babe, three other anxious looking women and an elderly couple.

They were the wife, baby, sisters-in-law, mother-in-law and father-in-law of the sergeant. He wanted them to return to America with him.

"You win," said the desk officer,
"you must have been a great soldier."
You certainly have nerve."

Mexico is Refused
Permission to Move
Troops Through U. S.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C., May 29.—President Carranza has been notified by the American government that permission for the passage of Mexican troops through American territory will be withheld for the present. Mexico had asked to be permitted to move 2,000 men from Agua Prieta to Juarez for operation against Villa.

It was said today officially that the decision was based upon the belief that the force which it was proposed to move through Arizona, New Mexico and Texas would not be able to protect American citizens in northern Mexico because the revolutionists had cut the road between Juarez and Chihuahua.

It was made clear at the state department, however, that if President Carranza could show there was greater necessity for the presence of the 2,000 men immediately south of the border at Juarez than at Agua Prieta in the territory where the Yaqui Indians are troublesome, the position of the United States government might be altered.

THINK FORRESTON

STOCK BUYER WAS A
FOUL PLAY VICTIMCoroner's Jury Has Case
Re-opened and Finds Murder Evidence.

Oregon, Ill., May 29.—Ogle county may have a murder trial; at least an investigation now under way may develop into one.

In May, 1918, the body of Henry Steinbeck, a Forreston stockbuyer, was found along the tracks of the C. M. & St. P. at North Forreston and after the usual inquest a verdict of death by being hit by a train was returned.
Developments since that time have led the coroner's jury to surmise that there might be circumstances connected with Steinbeck's death which were not brought out at the inquest and they asked to have the case reopened and the body exhumed for examination.
Coroner Unger granted their request and on Monday last week Dr. S. C.
Thomson of Byron and Dr. Harlan, of Freeport, made a post mortem examination.

The skull was found to be crushed near the left temple and fractured from this point across the top of the head and the forehead, indicating that death had resulted from an extremely heavy blow. There was also a wound on the left arm evidently inflicted by a sharp instrument.

The suspicious circumstances connected with the case are that after an evening of drinking Steinbeck with two companions, Forreston men named De-Wall and Daniels, started for Freeport about midnight. They report that Steinbeck was in the rear seat of the car alone, and that after crossing the railroad at North Forreston he was found to be missing. They turned around and came back but failed to find him or explain how he disappeared. The body was later found along the railroad tracks near the road crossing with one foot severed and the head crushed as above but not mutilated as might be expected from being hit by a train.

Mrs. William Randall went to Sterling Wednesday to visit with friends.

DEMOCRATS PLAN TO GET CAMPAIGN FUND IN SMALL MOUNTS

Million and Half Party Supporters Expected to Furnish Money.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, May 29.—Funds for the democratic campaign in 1920 will be raised by popular subscription and it is expected that contributions will be received from 1,500,000 persons, Wilbur W. March of Iowa, treasurer, told the democratic national committee today. In 1916 when popular subscriptions were first used by the democrats, 300,000 subscriptions were received, the average being $6 each, Mr. March said.

He reviewed the financial features of democratic presidential campaigns from Samuel J. Tilden to Woodrow Wilson and contrasted the methods used in raising money for political purposes.

"In the old days the junior member of a business concern would give a little to the democrats and the senior member would give the big money to the republicans," said Mr. March. "The object was to open up a channel to the seat of government."

Strong for Advertising.

"In the next campaign the issue will be the progressive achievements of the democratic party and what the party proposes to do in the future. Conducting a national campaign in these days is getting your message to every voter. This means telling your story to the people in the advertising columns of the newspapers and this costs money. This is the best known method of reaching the people. If we get our message to the voters in 1920 I have no doubt of success."

Mr. March said that the first $300,000 raised in 1916 was underwritten by ten men who afterwards were reimbursed.

Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson; A. Mitchell Palmer, United States attorney general and Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, arrived at noon. Mr. Tumulty explained that he came to Chicago in his private capacity as a democrat at the invitation of Chairman Homer S. Cummings.

Rochelle, Ill., May 28.—For the first time in the history of the city, Rochelle will have a representative at West Point. Word has been received of the appointment of Robert Ackett from the thirteenth congressional district by Representative John C. McKenzie with orders to report June 13. The appointee is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hackett, and is attending the University of Illinois. His father, W. F. Hackett, served as first lieutenant of Company M, of Rochelle, during the Spanish-American war and is now cadet drillmaster of the Community High school. Rochelle has been previously represented at the naval academy at Annapolis by the late Lieut. Walter J. Tigan, of the marine corps, who was killed in action at Chateau Thierry.

No Warrants Issued for Lynching Party

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Lamar, Mo., May 29.—Whether there will be any effort to identify and prosecute members of the mob which yesterday hanged Jay Lynch, confessed slayer of Sheriff John Harlow and Harlow's son here on March 3, was a matter of much speculation today.

Local authorities early today said no warrants had been issued. The coroner's jury late last night returned a verdict that Lynch came to his death "at the hands of parties unknown."

MAY BUY FIRE HOSE FOR DIXON COMPANY

George Hand of the Eureka Hose Co. spent yesterday in Dixon in conference with Commissioner Stohower and Fire Chief Coffey relative to the purchase of some new hose for the local fire department. It has been some time since the city purchased any new hose for the department and as a result the available and serviceable hose now totals but 2,200 feet, over 1,000 feet less than the department is supposed to have. Action toward the purchase of more hose will probably be taken by the city authorities within a short time.

U. S. Asks Bids on Much Canned Meat

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, May 29.—First steps by the war department toward disposition in this country of part of its enormous surplus of canned and cured meat were taken today with the mailing of invitations for bids to 1200 state and municipal hospitals, asylums and charitable and penal institutions. Invitations also were sent to the Salvation Army, the purchasing board of New York City and the New York state hospital board. Conferences recently between war department officials and the packing industry agreed to export as much of the 142,000,000 pounds surplus as possible. Institutions which have been invited to bid on the meat were selected, it was said, because their requirements are sufficiently large to permit them to purchase in car load lots.

Supervisor and Mrs. Ira Trostle of China township spent Wednesday afternoon with Dixon friends.

Red Cross is Waging Great Fight to Halt Typhus in Macedonia

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Kavalla, Macedonia, April 5.—(By AP.)—A desperate fight is now being waged by Greek, British, French, American Red Cross and United States army physicians to confine the outbreaks of typhus raging in Macedonia to its breeding ground and to prevent its spread to Europe and America. An expedition of American doctors and nurses has been rushed to Macedonia to combat the disease.

Red Cross workers in Macedonia are fighting conditions of a most discouraging nature. The Struma valley is low, swampy and malarial. Here thousands of British and Allied soldiers died of disease during the war. The road from Kavalla to Drama and from Drama to Serres is a morass of fathomless mud. An American army doctor who has waded through the mud writes:

"Today we carry our supplies of medicines and food to distant villages through roads several feet deep in mud. Paths are frequent and heavy and the fogs penetrate our bones. Red Cross women riding the mountain trails, swimming their horses across rivers, plodding through mud, braving typhus at every turn are carrying on their work with the spirit of the pioneer women of our own America."

"The filth and stench of the so-called cities, heaps of ruins after six years of war, are beyond description. The main street in Pravi and the highway from the railway station in Drama to the public square surpass in offensiveness anything I have ever seen."

"There is no wood for heating here and no stoves. The Bulgars have swept the country absolutely bare. Only the bare walls of the buildings in a hundred villages remain. All water must be boiled."

The typhus dead are removed from the tobacco warehouses at Kavalla in groups each day.

Willard Will Arrive at Toledo Saturday Ready to Start Work

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Toledo, O., May 29.—Jess Willard will arrive in Toledo Saturday night and settle down to training Sunday for his fight with Jack Dempsey here July 4. It is announced by Ray O. Archer, business representative of the champion, upon his arrival from Los Angeles today.

The champion left Los Angeles with Jack Hempel, one of his sparring partners yesterday. Willard, Archer said, plans four weeks of intensive training.

He said the title holder tipped the scale at 258½ pounds five days ago, which is a half a pound below the weight he made for his fight with Frank Moran in New York in 1916, his last championship match.

Archer will inspect training camps today and make a selection before night so that work on a ring can be started immediately. One of the camps picked out for inspection is a mile east of Dempsey's quarters. It is considered probable however, that a camp will be chosen in an opposite section of the city and on the Maumee river.

Willard expects to have three sparring partners in camp by Monday. They will include Hempel, Tim O'Neill, a light heavyweight of Chicago, and another heavyweight. The champion does not intend to have more than three sparring partners at any one time, Archer said.

James J. Jeffries, the former heavyweight champion; James Coffroth, the San Francisco boxing promoter, and a score of motion picture stars are planning to come from the coast on a special train, according to Archer.

Janesville Two-Row Cultivator

WHEN you sit comfortably on the easy riding Janesville Two-Row, and see every plant in every row getting exactly the cultivation you want it to have, you think what a blessing it is that you have a machine to do all that work. The old timers would think so if they could see you getting over the field so rapidly, and doing the work better than they ever did.

The Janesville Floating Arches solve the problem. They are hung by pendulums from the top bar and swing from side to side with a pendulum movement. You widen or narrow the gangs in the row with your feet. Or lock them at any width desired.

The shovels naturally follow the rows, but you can shift them to either side so quickly and so easily that you can hoe every hill without stopping the team.

Your own weight on the seat bars acts as a lever to turn the wheels slightly up hill—this big advantage takes the down-hill creep out of side-hill plowing. The entire machine is light, compact, flexible—no oiling needed except in wheel boxes.

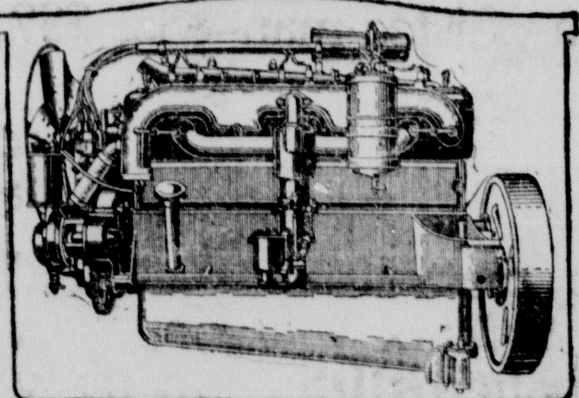

Cultivate with a Janesville Two-Row—and you will forget that there ever was hard work in cultivation.

On the return the merry-makers were treated to luncheon and ice cream at the home of Mrs. Andrew Gehant with Mrs. F. W. Meyer assisting as hostess.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Some letters George A. Clayton of the Rock Island road has received from his son, Sgt. Lee Clayton, in service in France, and also a letter from another soldier who was grateful for some newspapers sent by Mr. Clayton to a Y. M. C. A. hut in France:

France, April 20, 1919.

Dear Mother and All:
Your letter of March 25th came today and I was glad to hear from you again. I got a letter from Ella yesterday telling me of the death of Warren's little girl. It is too bad that anything like that had to happen to them.

Well, I think we will be home before long, although the way everything looks now as we were reviewed and inspected by George Pershing and Secretary of War Baker yesterday and everybody says we are going to move toward seacoast before May the first.

I was made a sergeant on the first of April and am going to send my warrant in this letter. I am back with the company again now. Ella is getting a bunch of records, isn't she?

We have been having nice weather here the last few days and yesterday was an ideal day for our division review. We went there and came back both ways in trucks it was some dusty. There must have been between 17 and 20 thousand soldiers there.

Will have to quit for this time. Hoping to hear from you again soon.

With love to all,
LEE,
Sgt. Lee W. Clayton, Co. B, 249th Inf., A. E. F., A. P. O. 795.

Chermine La Gaudin, France,
May 19, 1919.

Dear Folks at Home:
As we are in this town for a few days at least I will try and write you a few lines. I am feeling fine and hope this finds all of you folks well. We just got off the train this morning at seven o'clock. We loaded at De Manne at 4:10 Thursday morning and rode. I think, about 500 kilometers and we are now about 175 kilos from the seacoast. I do not think we will be here very long—not over 10 or 15 days at the most.

We had a dandy trip all of the way. We rode in American box cars and it was the best ride I have had in France. This place here where we are billeted is some place. It is an old chateau or monastery. I don't know which, and has about fifty rooms. Of course it is all ruins now about 75 or 100 years ago it must have been some place. And talk about flowers! All you can see around it is lilacs.

It is much warmer here than it was at the place we left. All of the trees are in bloom and things are much further along.

I just got through dinner. We had pork roast, potatoes and gravy, bread and coffee. The time goes fast over here now as we are in a new place and I don't think it will be very many days until we are back home again. We haven't had any mail here yet but I ought to commence to come in soon. I dreamed last night that I was home but it didn't come true. We are 19 miles from Le Mans—that is the town where most of the divisions are "ge-coized" and I think they draw new clothes there also.

Well, I will have to quit for this time.

Yours,
LEE.

who takes a great pride in her home and especially her kitchen is going to have that enameled All-over Range that is in our show window and when she gets it the neighbors will have to sit up and take notice for her kitchen will be the model of the neighborhood. Then, too, she will have more time for other things because the range is as easily washed as a china plate. She can cook with gas, wood or coal at her pleasure. It is the only range made that is enameled all over on cast iron.

Is your kitchen going to be the model in your neighborhood?

SHARP DECLINES IN CORN RESULT OF GOOD WEATHER

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, May 29.—Sharp declines in the corn market today resulted from excellent weather conditions and from prospects for large receipts which outnumbered buyers. Opening prices, which ranged from 1/2 to 3/4c lower with July 1.64 to 1.64 1/2 and Sept. 1.55 1/2 to 1.56, were followed by further setbacks.

Oats worked downward with corn. After opening 1/4 to 1/2c off, including July at 67 1/2 to 67 1/2c the market continued to sag.

Provisions averaged higher. An advance in the hog market was largely responsible, and so too was completion of a season of government land and wheat.

Subsequently, evening-up for the holiday tomorrow led to rallies. The market closed nervous at the same as yesterday's finish to 6 1/2c down, with July 1.64 1/2 to 1.65 and Sept. 1.56 1/2 to 1.56 1/2.
